GET CREATIVE WITH WIRED

Music Technology Club for Girls

Ever wondered how to produce and record your own music? Or how your favourite songs were made and how you could become a music producer?

WIRED is a free music technology club for girls and people of marginalised genders, organised by Yorkshire Sound Women Network and East Riding Music Hub.

Come join us for a free taster session at the Hexagon Music Centre on Wednesday 22nd November from 5.30pm – 7pm.

- Get a hands-on introduction to sound recording
- Learn how to create your own beat/songs using music production software
- Explore sounds, samples, plug-ins and vocal production

EVERYBODY WELCOME

Our 12-week WIRED music technology club starts in January 2024 and will be held at the Hexagon Music Centre on Wednesdays between 5.30pm – 7pm.

WORKSHOP DATES:

January 10th, 17th, 24th, 31st

February 7th, 14th, 21st, 28th

March 6th & 20th

April 10th & 17th

TIMES: 5.30pm – 7pm

VENUE: Hexagon Music Centre,
Coltman Avenue, Beverley, HU17 9LP

GET INVOLVED:

During the course of the workshops, you'll have a chance to:

- Explore different approaches to making music using Reaper, Logic Pro and Ableton Live software
- Experiment with sounds and samples, creating your own unique samples
- Build your own beats and songs
- Learn live recording techniques.

The club will be led by professional musicians Claire Holdich and Katrina Dixon, with guest workshops on Sound Art and Field Recordings led by artist Pheobe Law.

ALL OUR SESSIONS ARE FREE OF CHARGE

YOU CAN SIGN UP FOR THE TASTER SESSION OR
FOR THE 12-WEEK WIRED CLUB OR FOR BOTH!

If you would like to take part, please email us at info@yorkshiresoundwomen.com to register or download an application form from www.yorkshiresoundwomen.com (via the 'news' page) and return it to us.
